

ARAW

The Association for the Relief of Aged Women of New Bedford

The Association's mission is "to furnish financial assistance, provide friendship and promote the welfare and relief of elderly women."

One of the founders and the first President, Rachel Howland, organized this benevolent private foundation in 1866. Over the course of more than 150 years, ARAW has provided assistance, relief and friendship to thousands of elderly women.

"women helping women"

Today, led by volunteer board members and a small staff, the Association directly supports the individual financial needs of over 200 women.

"not alms alone, but a friend"

The Association's founding motto prevails as the core of what makes the Association's work so compelling and compassionate.

In addition to providing financial support, ARAW board members get to know beneficiaries and form lasting friendships.

The ARAW operates under the General Laws of Massachusetts as a private non-profit 501©(3) charitable organization.

Investing in and collaborating with our community partners to identify and address women's unmet needs.

Meeting our beneficiaries' needs through one time, intermittent or ongoing financial support.

Providing friendship to women through social visits.

SUPPORT

ARAW directly supports individual women as well as programs within our service area.

The Association's primary purpose is to improve the quality of life for elderly women. Direct financial support decisions are made monthly by taking each individual's circumstance and specific need into consideration.
